

A nighttime street scene showing a cyclist in the foreground on the left, moving away from the camera. The street is paved with cobblestones and has white lane markings. In the background, several pedestrians are walking, and there are illuminated buildings and streetlights. Three white text boxes are overlaid on the image, pointing to specific areas: 'Radfaherin' near the cyclist, 'Freigabe für Radfahrende' near a white line on the road, and 'Rechtsabbiegen für Radfahrende' near a white arrow on the road.
