The map displays the inner city of Regensburg, Germany, with a focus on two specific action areas: HR-K and HR-D. HR-D is a large, irregularly shaped area in the center of the city, colored red, indicating a 'Sehr hoher Handlungsbedarf' (Very high need for action). HR-K is a smaller, irregularly shaped area at the bottom of the map, colored orange, indicating a 'Hoher Handlungsbedarf' (High need for action). The map is overlaid on a detailed street map of the city, showing various streets, buildings, and landmarks. The legend at the top left explains the color coding for the action areas and the need for action. The title at the top left identifies the map as 'Anlage Handlungsräume HR-K und HR-D (Innenstadt)'.
